

Ema Levi With Her Daughters Mariola And Teodora Levi

This is my daughter Ema Levi with her daughters Mariola and Teodora. The picture was taken on the occasion of Mariola's wedding ceremony. My granddaughter's husband is a Bulgarian. Teodora left for Switzerland in the 1990s. The photo was taken shortly before that. My daughter Ema was born in 1952. She graduated from high school in Sofia, she got married early and she devoted herself to looking after her children. She was married twice and has three children. She has two girls from her first marriage, Teodora and Mariola. The older one, Teodora, went to Switzerland in the 1990s and currently lives there. She is dealing with interior design. The other one got married in Sofia and has a very successful marriage. She is expecting a baby now. My grandson's name is Borislav, he is finishing high school and playing basketball in the Jewish organization's team in Sofia. My daughter is currently dealing with a real estate agency.
