

Dora Levi And Her Granddaughter Mariola Levi

This is a photo of my wife, Dora Levi, nee Avram Ronko, with our granddaughter Mariola Levi. The photo was taken in Sofia in 1972. My granddaughter is several months old here. My daughter Ema was born in 1952. She graduated from high school in Sofia, she got married early and she devoted herself to looking after her children. She was married twice and has three children. She has two girls from her first marriage, Teodora and Mariola. The older one, Teodora, went to Switzerland in the 1990s and currently lives there. She is dealing with interior design. The other one got married in Sofia and has a very successful marriage. She is expecting a baby now. My grandson's name is Borislav, he is finishing high school and playing basketball in the Jewish organization's team in Sofia. My daughter is currently dealing with a real estate agency. My wife retired at the age of 42 because of an illness. Before that she used to work as a librarian. My daughter had given birth to two children within a short period of time and it was difficult for her to manage with this situation. On the other hand, my wife was ill and she wasn't able to offer much help to my daughter.
