

Bronislava Chepur's Father Dmitriy Chepur

My father Dmitriy Chepur. My father Dmitriy Yurievich Chepur was a Ukrainian. He came from Dimitrovka village Znamenska district, Kirovograd region. His mother Theodosia Tikhonovna Chepur was a cook for the priest. The family legend says that either the priest himself or his son became the father of her children. My grandmother had 3 sons. They all had her last name and were illegitimate. Their father (the priest) lived in the village and saw how difficult it was for her to manage but he didn't support or marry her. I don't know where the truth was, as I got to know the details from other sources. My grandmother never told any stories in this regard. My father was very capable and always wanted to learn. He has finished in the village 7 classes of the secondary school, and when he was 14 years old has arrived in the Kiev. First it has entered on rabfak (there took all, who wanted to learn, formation was free), has got room in dormitory, afterwards has entered to the Department of Physics and Mathematics, Kiev State University.
