

At The 50th Year Reception

Another picture from the 50th year reception. After receiving my title of privelege, my grandson Atay took me by the hand back to my seat. Süleyman Demirel tousled his hair and said "the future is in the hands of these children".