

Veronika Kosikova

This is me in Zlate Moravce in 1944. I don't know why I frown. In the background you can see my doll and baby carriage.

I was the only child in our family. I was born on 18th February 1940 in Zlate Moravce. My memories of this region are very vague because I only lived there for a few years because of the war.