I don't know who are the two children who saw me coming from the toilet. I don't know who took the picture either. This was either when I was hiding at Aunt Julka's or it was shortly after the war, so sometime in 1945. I can't say for sure.

Julka Sykorova came from Male Chyntice, Zlate Moravce or Vrable district, I don't know exactly. We were in contact with her long after the war. I called her Julka neni; in a certain period of my life she was like my second mother. She died in 1980.
