He was very religious. We went to my grandfather for the Seder. I remember a large table and there must have been relatives at that table, possibly Grandfather's sisters. One chair was left unoccupied, the door was left ajar, they told me prophet Elias would come to take that chair, there was a plate for him. I remember how they poured the wine into the cup, grape wine, and my grandfather sprinkled the wine and told the blessing. He was very skinny, tall, dressed all black. I don't know whether [Grandfather] had a beard.
