

Building Bridges in Teaching about European Jewish HerStories

A 3-DAY TRAINING SEMINAR IN BERLIN

SEPTEMBER 30 - OCTOBER 2, 2023

Interested in how educators from other countries teach about Jewish history? Are you looking for new perspectives to share with your students and would like to create a transnational project? Then join our international seminar about Jewish women's history for an opportunity to connect and exchange ideas with colleagues from Israel, Poland and Germany. Through digital tools, talks, tours and group work, we will explore the footprints of Jewish women in Berlin.

YOU WILL

- explore the unique history of Berlin and tour historical sites, including excursions to the different memorials, the House of the Wannsee Conference, and former Jewish quarters
- meet renowned historians and representatives of Jewish community organizations to discuss German Holocaust Education and remembrance culture
- develop international school projects using Centropa's short films and biographies of German-Jewish Holocaust survivors
