Amended Return Explanation

The Form 990 was originally filed as a consolidated return including financial information from four different, but thought to be related organizations. It has since been determined that although the organizations based in Hungary and Germany have similar goals their activities should be seen as self supporting and therefore this return should be filed based on the activity and net assets associated with the United State's Central Europe Center for Research & Documentation, Inc. only. Note that only the current year financial information was updated. Adjustments to net assets are being shown as a prior period adjustment.
