

YOUR NOT-SO-SECRET GUIDE FOR A SUCCESSFUL LESSON

Group Work Guidelines

Guiding questions to help you think about where the film might fit into your current curriculum:

- 1) What themes or topics do you see in this film that you teach in your classes?
- 2) Which lesson, unit or project already in your curriculum would this film help you teach?
- 3) What topics or themes that you don't currently teach, but have always wanted to, will this film help you teach?

Once you've decided on where the film fits into your curriculum, here are some concrete aspects you may want to consider:

1. Target audience and the total required time

2. List of classroom supplies required

3. Subject-related Objectives and Skills-Related Objectives

What do you want your students to learn from this film?
